

Mr. Michael R. Mathews

Mr. Michael R. Mathews assumed his current position as Deputy, Army Support Activity (ASA), Fort Sam Houston on 1 October 2010. ASA is the Army organization established to deliver Army retained Installation Support Services in partnership with the 502d Mission Support Group.

Mr. Mathews has held a variety of leadership positions throughout his military career, culminating as Garrison Command Sergeant Major, Fort Riley, Kansas.

Prior to his current assignment, Mr. Mathews served as the Region Installation Support Program Manager for Fort Hood, Texas. Prior to this, he served with IMCOM Central Region Operations Division, Installation Management Command, West Region, Fort Sam Houston, Texas. Mr. Mathews holds an MBA, Management, University of Mary, a Bachelor of Science, Social Services, Upper Iowa University and an Associate of General Studies, Barton County Community College.

Mr. Mathews awards include Army Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal, Army Meritorious Service Medal-2nd Award, Army Commendation Medal-6th Award, Army Achievement Medal-7th Award, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, GWOT Service Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Army Service Ribbon Overseas Service Ribbon, IRAQ Service medal, Kuwait Service Medal, Recruiter of the Year, Drill Sergeant of the Cycle-4th Award and the Combat Action Badge.

He is a member of US Army Sergeants Major Association, Veterans Of Foreign Wars Association and the Kentucky Colonel Association. He is married and has two sons that are both members of the United States Air Force.